NL CORRESPONDENT

Jammu Tawi: Punjab National Bank (PNB) mobilised 609.96 crore through Green Deposits during FY26, registering a 54.69 per cent increase from 394.31 crore raised in FY25, according to the bank's Annual Report 2025-26.

The bank said most of the funds raised through Green Deposits were deployed towards renewable energy and clean transportation projects, reflecting its commitment to sustainable finance and support for India's climate goals.

PNB attributed the growth in its Green Deposit portfolio to increasing customer confidence and rising interest in responsible and environmentally sustainable investments.

The bank said it remains focused on channelising Green Deposit funds into projects that generate measurable environmental benefits while expanding its green finance portfolio.

As India advances its sustainability agenda, PNB said it aims to further strengthen its support for green initiatives and contribute to the country's transition towards a more sustainable and climate-resilient economy.
