PNB migrates to bank.in domain to tackle fraud

New Delhi: Punjab National Bank said on Tuesday it has opted for the domain bank.in, and now its website will be www.pnb.bank.in against www.pnb.co.in. With this, PNB has become the first public sector bank in India to migrate its corporate website to the bank.in domain, which is reserved exclusively for banks to combat fraud in digital payments. The Institute for Development and Research in Banking Technology (IDRBT) will act as the exclusive registrar. OUR BUREAU

PNB SECURE '.BANK.IN' DOMAIN MIGRATION

State-owned Punjab National Bank (PNB) on Tuesday said it has successfully migrated its corporate website to '.Bank.In' domain (<https://pnb.Bank.In>), in line with RBI circular and under the guidance of Institute for Development and Research in Banking Technology (IDRBT). This serves as the exclusive registrar for this domain and this marks a significant milestone in the Indian banking sector's digital transformation, PNB said in a statement. With this move, PNB has become the first public sector bank in the country to migrate its corporate website to the secure '.Bank.In' domain reaffirming its commitment to customer safe and secure digital banking, it said. The '.Bank.In' domain is reserved exclusively for banks, providing stronger safeguards to combat frauds, strengthen the cybersecurity framework and enhance public confidence in the digital banking, it said.
